YOUR TRUST

The Psychologists Protection Society Trust is committed to supporting Counsellors, Psychotherapists and Psychologists when they need help and assistance in their professional work.

The Board of Trustees is made up of current members from the roll of The Psychologists Protection Society Trust, professionals and students from the fields of the talking and listening therapies.

HELP YOUR COLLEAGUES

Board Members bring their knowledge and professional experience to assist members who are finding themselves in difficulties. They may provide professional advice and will oversee any claims made to the Members Professional Protection Insurance policy and to the Professional Indemnity Trust Fund.

The Psychologists Protection Society Trust is looking for new Trustees. We would invite PPS members who feel they have the knowledge, experience and desire to join the Board to assist members and help shape the future of PPS to contact us. The PPS Board will also consider co-opting non-PPS members to the Board.

PPS NEEDS YOU
